

Committee Recruitment Process

Introduction

Based on direction from HB16-1148 passed during the 2016 legislative session, the Exchange Board established an advisory group to make recommendations to the Board.

Application Process

Who Can Apply

Any person may nominate a qualified candidate(s). Self-nominations are accepted. Nominees should have subject matter expertise in their field. The Exchange seeks nominees from various stakeholder expertise, including but not limited to, enrollment assistors, brokers, carriers, consumer advocacy organizations, health care providers, small business owners, and health policy professionals.

How to Apply

Nominations of qualified individuals should be submitted to the board email address and must include a completed application of the individual or on the nominee's behalf.

Decision Making Process

The Board Executive Committee is responsible for reviewing and selecting nominees. The Board Executive Committee will make selections based on the following criteria in order to select suitable nominees for membership:
