

Checkboxes for Colorado Health Care Coverage

Colorado taxpayers can now share certain information from their tax return with the Colorado Health Benefit Exchange (Connect for Health Colorado) and the Colorado Department of Health Care Policy and Financing to find out if they can enroll in health coverage and qualify for help paying for coverage (Colorado Law: 39-21-113(25) C.R.S). This information will only be used to check if you can enroll in health coverage and qualify for help paying for coverage. For more information about getting health care coverage, visit Connect for Health Colorado at <https://connectforhealthco.com>.
